Vessel Schedule Update

Dear Valued Customers,

Further to our previous notices and network updates delivery of schedules in the current operating environment continues provide unprecedented challenges. We maintain our commitment to keep you informed with the latest information and as such wish to advise you of the following:

Southern Pearl v1485 – Is currently at the pilot station in Wallis awaiting approval to berth, we will keep you updated on her progress and advise her updated dates as they become available.

Sofrana Tourville v253 – Her ETA Noumea will be delayed 9 days due to an urgent requirement to divert her to Tonga to clear a back log of transshipment cargo in Auckland. Her revised ETA Noumea is 1 November.

Southern Moana v39 – will arrive Auckland on 15th of October however she will be delayed 1 day alongside in Auckland awaiting labour. Her current ETD is 19th October.

Southern Trader v498 – Will incur 5 days delay waiting for berth in Auckland, her current ETB is 22nd October & her ETD is 24th October. During her return voyage from Tahiti she is required to divert to Pago Pago to undertake maintenance work to ensure compliance with NZ MPI.

The daily vessel positions update available at npdlship.com reflects the most up to date information available and is updated each business day, should you have any further questions or queries please contact your NPDL representative.

Yours sincerely,

NPDL
